

Darryl Little
Vice President of Operations and Procurement, GMS

Darryl Little, our Vice President of Operations and Procurement, has served in this role since 2015. Mr. Little started with the company in May of 1998 at one of our subsidiaries, Tucker Materials of Georgia, where he served as the General Manager through December of 2009. In January of 2010, Mr. Little joined the GMS Corporate office as the Corporate Business Development Manager working with our subsidiaries on national customer accounts and purchasing initiatives. In 2013, he was promoted to Director of Strategic Accounts until he began his current role. Mr. Little was named Vice President of Operations and Procurement in 2015, and is currently responsible for national purchasing programs, national customer account management, Tool Source Warehouse (a wholly owned GMS subsidiary), corporate fleet management, and the corporate marketing department. Prior to joining GMS, Mr. Little started his career in the transportation industry at Ryder System in January of 1987 and remained in that industry until joining GMS in 1998.

Gypsum Management & Supply, Inc. (NASDAQ: GMS) was founded in 1971 and operates a network of more than 250 distribution centers across the United States and Canada. GMS's extensive product offering of wallboard, suspended ceilings systems, or ceilings, and complementary construction products is designed to provide a comprehensive one-stop-shop for our core customer, the interior contractor who installs these products in commercial and residential buildings.
